Buying a Ticket

When Michelle is sure that all the information is correct, she can start entering in her personal information. First, she types in her First and Last Name. Next, she types in her e-mail and her phone number. If Michelle has a frequent flyer number for this airline, she can enter the number.
Michelle also has to check the price of the flight to make sure that it is the same as what she saw earlier.

When Michelle is sure that all the information is correct, she can start entering in her personal information. First, she types in First and Last Name.
First, she types in her First and Last Name.

Next, she types in her e-mail and her phone number.
Now it's your turn to try. Type in your first name, middle name and last name in the spaces provided. To move from one space to the next, push the tab button on your keyboard. When you are done, click on the I'm Done button.

Now type in your e-mail and your phone number. When you are done, click on the I'm Done button.
Great job typing!

For security purposes, the airline needs to have Michelle’s birth date.
She will also need to select the gender.

If Michelle plans to buy plane tickets from Kayak again, she can create an account by entering her e-mail and a password.
Kayak offers trip protection that Michelle can buy in case Michelle cannot make the trip due to illness, injury or job layoffs. Michelle decides not to buy the trip protection.

To pay for the plane ticket, Michelle will need to enter her credit card information.
To pay for the plane ticket, Michelle will need to enter her credit card information.

She will also have to enter her billing address.
Finally, Michelle reviews the policies and terms for her plane ticket.

She checks the box to agree to the rules.
She clicks on the "Book for..." button to buy the ticket. After she buys the ticket, she will receive a confirmation e-mail in her e-mail Inbox.